CHILE'S FLEET AT ARICA

Jose Escalier Says Isolation of Bolivia by Treaty Cannot Be Definite.

LAMA, Peru, July 17 (delayed) .- Instructions to officially recognize the new Bolivian Government have been sent to the Peruvian representative at La Paz Dr. Melitor F. Porras, Chancellor of Peru, announced in an interview here

Referring to reports from Santiago and Buenos Aires regarding mobilization in Chile and Peru, Dr. Porras stated that Peru is pursuing a pacific course and that no military movements of any character have been ordered. He said that, while Peru viewed with sympathy the triumph of the new Bolivian Government, reports of Peruvian participation in aiding the revolution were false and unworthy of consideration.

SANTIAGO, Chile, July 17 (delayed) .-Advices received here to-day announce the expected arrival at Arica of a train-load of deportees from Bolivia, including the former Ministers of Finance and Foreign Relations, as well as other promintent members of the regime reently overthrown by the revolution in The newspapers announce that a

Chilean battle ship and a part of the ald Russia by every means to attain other units of the Chilean fleet have arrived at Arica.

The public press continues absorbed with discussion of the possible effect of the Bolivian revolt on Chilean relations in connection with the littoral question as a result of the Republicans coming into power. The Mercurio remarks obscurely that the situation itself justifies "our Government's measures of prevision. It is presumed the revolutionaries will try as soon as possible to get Congress to give constitutional form to their acts and only then to commence perceiving the international policy of their nev

The morning papers give prominent to declarations by Jose Escalier, the Bolivian Republican chief, who is now et route from Buenos Aires to La Paz, i which he comments on the treaty signed in 1995 between Bolivia and Chile. In the metropolitan district of New York alone projects are now in the hands of contractors for sixty-eight theatres, for example, for more than a hundred monumental building projects ranging from structures of the Equitable Fulfding able Building type to vast loft building enterprises, such as the remodelling of great hotel structures. There is, on the other hand, hardly a new housing preject under way in the Bronx, only a limited number in Queens Borough and a scattering of comparatively small hous-
